PLAINTIFF JOHNNY M. HUNT’S SECOND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION TO DEFENDANT GUIDEPOST SOLUTIONS LLC

Plaintiff Johnny M. Hunt requests that Defendant Guidepost Solutions LLC produce the following documents at the offices of MacGill PC, 156 E. Market St., Floor 12, Indianapolis, IN 46204, or electronically to Scott E. Murray, within thirty (30) days from the date of service hereof, or at such other time or place as the parties may agree or the Court may order, pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

1. The following instructions and definitions apply to each request for production (“RFP”) and are incorporated by reference into each RFP. The RFPs must be read in the light of these instructions and definitions, and your answers must be responsive to the RFPs as so defined.
2. You are to timely supplement your responses to these RFPs.
3. If you object to any RFP, you shall so state and include your basis for the objection in your answer to the specific RFP you found objectionable. If only part of any RFP is objectionable, you shall produce the documents and/or things that are unobjectionable and state the objection, and its basis, to any remaining part.

4. Rules of Construction: (a) The singular shall include the plural, and the plural shall include the singular; (b) A masculine, feminine, or neutral pronoun shall be construed to refer to all other gender pronouns; (c) “And” and “or” shall be construed conjunctively and disjunctively so as to bring within the scope of these RFPs any information that might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope; (d) “Any” shall be understood to include and encompass one or more and “all;” and (e) The present tense shall include the past tense, for example “are” shall include “were.”

5. Claim of Privilege. Wherever any RFP calls for the production of a document or thing that you claim to be privileged or immune from discovery as work product or on any other ground, Plaintiff requests that you produce within thirty (30) days of service of these RFPs a list:

- a. Identifying each particular RFP to which you object, and each specific ground upon which such objection is based; and
- b. Specifying each withheld document or thing or fact, or portion thereof as follows:
its date; the general nature of the document or thing (e.g., whether it is a letter, chart, pamphlet, memorandum, etc.); a summary of the contents or the general subject matter of the document or thing; the identity of each other document or other thing transmitted with or attached to that allegedly privileged or discovery-immune document or thing; its present location and the identity of its current custodian; the identity of each person who authored, prepared, or signed the document or thing; a list identifying each person, including but not limited to addressees and designated copy recipients, to whom either the original or a copy of the document or thing has been disclosed, including the date and means of such disclosure; and the nature of the privilege, immunity, or other rule of law relied upon to withhold the information, document, or thing, and the facts supporting your asserted reliance.

Any purportedly privileged or discovery-immune information or document that contains matter that is not privileged or immune from discovery must be produced with the purportedly privileged or discovery-immune portion excised.

6. Scope of Answers. In answering these RFPs, you are requested to furnish all information available to you, however obtained, including hearsay, information known by you or in your possession or appearing in your records, information in the possession of your attorneys, agents, accounts, employees, your investigators, and all persons acting on your behalf, and not merely the information known of your own personal knowledge. Any person who produces information in answer to the following RFPs is requested to identify which answers he has produced and furnish his name, address, and title.

7. Qualification of Answers. If your answer is in any way qualified, please state the exact nature and extent of the qualification.

8. “Communication” or “communicate” or “communicated” means or includes every manner of transmitting or receiving information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries, or otherwise), and includes both oral and written communications of any type or form (including typewritten or handwritten documents, teletype, wire, e-mail, internet, digital, and any other electronic communications).

9. “Describe” means to state all information known about a particular subject, however and whenever obtained, subject to any Claim of Privilege, and includes the source of any information. With respect to conversations or communications, “describe” further means to state the date of the conversation or communication; the time of the conversation or communication; the location(s) where the conversation or communication took place; the subject matter of the conversation or communication, including a recitation of exactly what was said and by whom; the identity of all persons who participated in the conversation or communication; and the identity of all other persons who were present during the conversation or communication.

10. “Document” or “documents” is used in a comprehensive sense as set forth in Rule 34(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and includes, but is not limited to: any and all written, typewritten, printed, photographed, recorded, transcribed, punched, taped, filed, digital, electronic, or graphic matter of any kind or nature, however produced or reproduced, including the complete original or, where no original is available, a complete copy of the original, and each non-identical copy of the original (e.g., where different because of notes made on the copy); any form of collected data for use with electronic data processing equipment, and any mechanical, visual, or sound recordings in your custody, possession, or control and any correspondence, emails, instant messages, text messages, telegrams, telegraphs, teletypes, memoranda, agendas, contracts, studies, statements, notes, reports, agreements, diaries, statistics, letters, date books, work papers, statements, tapes, discs, minutes, entries, books of account, inter-office and intraoffice communications, notations of any sort of conversation, and lists. The term also includes all information stored in a computer system although not yet printed, all information stored on computer disks or hard drives, all information stored on computer tape backups, and all information stored on CD-ROM or electronic media, including voicemail, e-mail, text messages, or instant messages. In addition, the term “documents” means any metadata or other electronic information related to the foregoing enumerated items.

11. For all documents as defined above of which you are aware are responsive to the following RFPs but are not produced, you should “identify” such documents. This specifically includes documents that are allegedly lost, stolen, misplaced, discarded, shredded, deleted or are not otherwise being produced for any reason.

12. “Identify,” “identity,” or “identities,”

- a. when used in reference to any entity or person means to state his/her/its name, address or a description of his/her/its location, and telephone number and, if known, date and place of birth and social security number;
- b. when used in reference to a document, means to state its form (written, typed, printed, computer printout, or other form), number of pages, author, recipient, date, and the name, current address, and job title or job description of each person presently having custody of or access to a copy of the document; and
- c. when used in reference to an event, means to state when the event occurred, who was present, and all other facts related to it.

13. “Person” includes all natural persons, corporations, limited liability companies, proprietorships, partnerships, other business associations, firms, joint ventures, public authorities, municipal corporations, state governments, local governments, governmental bodies, and any other legal entities, and the employees or agents of these entities.

14. “Concerning,” “reflecting,” “regarding,” “relating to” or “referring to” means directly or indirectly relating to, referring to, reflecting, pertaining to, describing, evidencing, supporting, constituting, comprising, containing, setting forth, showing, disclosing, defining, discussing, embodying, identifying, stating, dealing with, associated with, describing, explaining, summarizing, mentioning, including, or refuting.

15. All capitalized terms not otherwise defined shall have the meaning provided in the referenced document. Any defined term that is inadvertently not capitalized shall retain the definition provided herein.

16. If you contend that you cannot comply with any request in full, you should comply to the extent possible and provide an explanation as to why full compliance is not possible.

17. For document requests: If any portion of a document is responsive to any request, the entire document must be produced; and you must produce all documents described or requested whether they are drafts, outlines, final versions, or otherwise and/or whether they are or are not identical to any copy or copies thereof, by reason of alterations, notes, comments, initials, underscoring, indication of routing, or other material contained thereon or attached thereto. All such non-identical copies are to be produced separately. In so doing, please furnish documents that are in the possession of your directors, officers, employees, attorneys, accountants, representatives or agents, or that are otherwise subject to your custody or control.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

18. “Guidepost,” “you,” and “your” refers to Guidepost Solutions LLC and its respective successors or predecessors in interest, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, directors, officers, agents, employees, and/or independent contractors, consultants, and all persons (including, without limitation, its attorneys, accountants, and advisors) acting or purporting to act on its behalf.
